

3359-11-07 Sixty plus program.

- (A) The university of Akron sixty plus program has been designed to allow persons over sixty years of age to attend university courses on a non-credit (audit) basis without having to pay tuition, general service fees, or other fees not charged to all students taking the same class under conditions described below:
- (1) To qualify for the sixty plus program, the prospective student must be sixty years of age or older and have resided in the state of Ohio for at least one year.
  - (2) Sixty plus students are permitted to enroll in a class on a space available basis. Sixty plus students will be allowed in classes only after degree seeking students have registered.
  - (3) Sixty plus students are listed as audit students. Audit students do not generate state subsidy, therefore, audit students should not be considered in making courses reach minimum size.
  - (4) Students sixty years or older who choose to take classes for credit must pay full tuition and fees.
  - (5) A sixty plus student must either satisfy prerequisite class requirements or obtain the instructor's permission.
  - (6) Sixty plus students' admittance into a course is subject to the instructor's approval.
  - (7) A sixty plus student may register for no more than three courses (eleven or fewer credits) per semester.
  - (8) Sixty plus students are responsible for payment of approved fees which are assessed to all students taking the same course. Tuition, general service fees, and any other fee not assessed to all students taking the same class will be waived. Sixty plus students are

- (B) Persons over the age of sixty may attend university of Akron courses and classes and receive credit for courses taken under the conditions set forth in paragraph (A) of this rule if that person's family income is less than two hundred per cent of the federal poverty guideline, as revised annually by the United States secretary of health and human services in accordance with section 673 of the "Community Services Block Grant Act," 95 stat. 511 (1981) 42 U.S.C.A. 9902, as amended, for a family size equal to the size of the family of the person whose income is being determined. However, a person receiving credit for attending courses or classes under this division will be charged a tuition or matriculation fee in an amount no
