

- (ii) If the university does not permit the student to enroll or continue except for disciplinary reasons. No refund will be granted to a student dismissed or suspended for disciplinary reasons.
- (iii) If the student dies before or during the term, is drafted into military service by the United States, is called to active duty, or if the student enlists in the national guard or reserves prior to the beginning of the term. Notice of induction or orders to active duty is required if the student is called to active duty. A student who enlists voluntarily for active duty should see ~~paragraph (B)(2)(b)~~ paragraphs (B)(1)(b) and (B)(1)(c) of this rule.
- (b) In part:
- (i) All refund calculations are determined by class length percentage, not by class meetings completed or class meeting percentage. Class length is defined as the number of days between and including the beginning and ending dates of any given term session (including weekend days and holidays). The standard fifteen week academic semester refund calculation is as follows: fall/spring/summer semester percentages which apply are:
- (a) One hundred per cent refund through day fourteen. If 6.667 per cent of class completed, one hundred per cent refund.
- (b) Zero per cent refund after day fourteen. If 13.333 per cent of class completed, seventy per cent refund.
- (c) If 20 per cent of class completed, fifty per cent refund.
- (d) If 26.667 per cent of class completed, thirty per cent refund.
- (e) If 33.333 per cent of class completed, twenty per cent refund.
- (f) Greater than 33.333 per cent of class time completed, zero per cent refund.
- (c) Refunds for course sections that are shorter than the standard fifteen week academic semester which have not been scheduled consistent with either the standard fifteen week fall/spring/summer

- (d) Refunds will be determined as of the date of formal withdrawal unless proof is submitted that circumstances beyond control of the student, e.g., hospital confinement, prevented the filing of the official withdrawal earlier, in which case the refund will be determined as of the date of said circumstance. The student assumes responsibility for filing for a refund.
- (e) Refunds will be mailed provided as soon as possible. Refund checks Refunds are subject to deduction for any amount owed to the university of Akron by the student. Depending on the date of withdrawal and the refund due, if any, a balance may still be owed on an installment payment plan contract.
- (f) No refund will be granted to a student dismissed or suspended for disciplinary reasons.
- (g) The university reserves the right to cancel a course for insufficient enrollment.
