

contract, this rule will not apply until their current contract term expires.

- (d) Contract professionals, including coaches, who have individual employment agreements are not affected by these provisions.

(D) Reduction in workforce. Conditions may arise that necessitate the reduction of the university work force. Reduction of two or more contract professional positions, including coaches, in this manner may occur for a variety of reasons including but not limited to, budgetary constraints, changing priorities, lack of work, reasons of economy, efficiency improvements, reorganization, or due to extraordinary or catastrophic circumstances or events beyond the university's control.

(1) Employees with less than five years of continuous employment with the university of Akron will be provided with at least thirty calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of termination.

(2) Employees with five years or more of continuous employment with the university of Akron will be provided with at least forty-five calendar days' written notice prior to the effective date of termination.

(3) Employees shall be entitled to paid leave at their current rate of pay with benefits during the first thirty days of the notice period, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The paid leave will start on a date to be determined by the employee's supervisor in consultation with human resources and may be immediate, or may be delayed, but will begin no later than ten calendar days after notice of the reduction in force is given.

(b) Employees with five or more years of continuous employment at the university of Akron may choose to utilize their accrued vacation leave to be paid for any days past the first thirty days of the notice period. Otherwise, this time shall be considered a leave of absence without pay.

(c) If an employee obtains a full-time position with the university or any other employer before the completion of the applicable notice period, the paid leave shall terminate on the date of the new employment.

~~(D)~~ (E) Termination of appointment for cause. The appointment of a contract professional may be terminated for cause at any time upon the recommendation of the appropriate vice president and approval by the president or the president's designee(s).

Prior to the vice president's recommendation to the president or the president's designee(s), the contract professional shall be advised by the immediate supervisor or appropriate administrative officer in writing of the supervisor's (or administrative officer's) decision to recommend to the vice president the contract professional's dismissal for cause not less than thirty calendar days prior to the effective date of such dismissal, except in case of conduct involving moral turpitude or public safety. to the decision to recommend such dismissal, and during the thirty-day period ~~The~~ contract professional ~~may shall~~ have a hearing on the reason for termination before the president or the president's designee(s). ~~provided the contract professional shall submit to the president a request for a hearing in writing within ten days after the contract professional's notification of termination. "Days" for request for a hearing shall include only regular business days, Monday through Friday, during which the university is open for business, and shall not include holidays. Upon the president's receipt of such request,~~ The contract professional shall be notified of the date, time, and procedures for the hearing.

In the case of conduct involving moral turpitude or public safety, the contract professional shall be immediately placed on administrative leave with or without pay, pending the vice president's recommendation and action by the president or the president's designee(s).

~~Whether or not the vice president upholds or denies the recommendation of the immediate supervisor or appropriate administrative officer to recommend termination, the contract professional shall be afforded the right to a name-clearing hearing. Any action by the contract professional to initiate a name-clearing hearing shall be in accordance with the contract professional grievance procedure.~~

~~(E)~~ (F) Deprivation of a "liberty" or "property" interest. if cases other than a reduction in workforce, the contract professional believes that the separation from employment without cause constitutes a deprivation of a "property interest" ~~or "liberty interest,"~~ protected by the due process clause of the United States Constitution, the contract professional ~~shall may~~ be afforded a hearing upon request before the president or the president's designee. ~~In the event the contract professional believes the separation from employment with or without cause constitutes a deprivation of a "liberty interest," the contract professional shall be provided a name-clearing hearing before the board of trustees. For purposes of requesting a hearing, "days" shall include only regular business days, Monday through Friday, during which the university is open for business, and shall not include holidays.~~

(1) Hearing procedure ~~for "property interest" with separation from employment without cause~~ The contract professional shall ~~submit to the president request for a~~ the hearing on the alleged deprivation in writing within ten calendar days after following the date of contract professional's notification of separation and shall provide the specific reasons why upon the president's receipt of such request, the contract professional believes termination was a violation of either their "liberty" or

"property" interest. Upon request of such hearing, the president or president's designee shall decide whether a hearing is necessary. If it is determined that a hearing is necessary, the contract professional shall be notified of the date, time and procedures for the hearing.

(2) The contract professional shall have the right to be assisted by an advisor or attorney at his or her own cost, but such advisor or attorney shall not actively participate in the hearing, other than to privately counsel and advise the contract professional.

~~(2) Hearing procedure for contract professional who believes that the separation from employment either with or without cause constitutes a deprivation of a "liberty interest," seeking a name-clearing hearing in connection with separation from employment.~~

~~(a) In the event a contract professional believes that his or her separation from employment without cause, or his or her termination from employment for cause, constitutes a deprivation of a "liberty interest" protected by the due process clause of the United States Constitution, the contract professional shall be notified of the date, time and procedures for the hearing.~~

~~(b) A contract professional requesting a hearing under paragraph (E)(2) of this rule shall initiate the request in writing to the secretary of the board of trustees within ten days following the date of notification of separation without cause or termination for cause.~~

~~(c) The secretary of the board of trustees shall notify the contract professional regarding the procedures for the conduct of the hearing, and set the date and time for the hearing, which shall be at the next available board meeting. The contract professional shall have the right to be assisted by an advisor or attorney at his or her own cost, but such advisor or attorney shall not actively participate in the hearing, other than to privately counsel and advise the contract professional.~~

~~(F)~~ (G) Resignation. A contract professional who proposes to resign from the university of Akron should give sufficient notice to obviate serious embarrassment and difficulty to the university in filling the position. Once a resignation has been submitted and accepted by the employee's immediate supervisor, it may not be withdrawn without the specific approval of the immediate supervisor and the chief human resources officer.

~~(G)~~ (H) Vacation. Contract professionals on annual appointment are entitled to one hundred seventy-six hours of vacation at a time approved by the president or the president's designee (see rule 3359-11-03 of the Administrative Code).
